

Threats to The Common Good: Cultural and Social Evil in America

with Buddy Parker

Tuesday, May 2, 2023, 7:00–8:30PM

A Virtual Event

Join us for this special online program focusing on the history of evil in our civil structures, current efforts to misrepresent and conceal this history, and their effects on the Common Good.

Thanks to a generous grant, this program is offered free of charge. However, registration is necessary to receive the Zoom link. Please visit our website, maryandmarthasplace.com/special-events to register and receive the Zoom link.

Wilmer "Buddy" Parker, JD, MBA, LLM, has been practicing law in the criminal justice arena for over 45 years, including 19 years as a Federal prosecutor in Washington and Atlanta. Over the past two years, he has undertaken the examination of the U.S. Constitution, and its interpretive legacy through the lens of conscious evolution, constitutional rights and the Common Good. He is also examining current efforts to misrepresent and conceal this legacy. Buddy was a co-presenter at our 2022 Spring Conference, The Evolution of Consciousness in America.
