

Wisdom School

The Way of the Heart

Wednesday January 31 to Sunday February 4 , 2024 Boyacá, Colombia

Recovering the ancient Christian contemplative path in the wisdom lineage of Cynthia Bourgeault

We invite you to follow a path of inner transformation taking from the rich Benedictine tradition and other related Christian paths. Through an active exploration that interweaves contemplative practices with life actions experienced with conscience presence, we create a powerful container for human transformation leading to a more conscious and compassionate life.

On this occasion we take up the theme of the "Way of the Heart" with the understanding of the heart as an organ of spiritual perception. We will be guided by practitioners from Chile, Argentina, Venezuela, the United States, Colombia and Uruguay.

Participating through videoconference:
Cynthia Bourgeault speaking of her mentor Thomas Keating and Maria Toscano Liria, contemporary mystic and author of Iniciación a la Iniciación.

Place: Hacienda Polmerán, Sotaquirá, Boyacá.
170 kilómetros al noreste de Bogotá.
